

In Memory of Doug Barron

Today I witnessed a newborn life
As it came into the world.
A world that's filled with strife
And a future yet to be unfurled.

And through the years, as time goes on
He gives his childhood up.
He awakens with each new dawn
And drinks life through a silver cup.

And the hour glass sands
Sift the time away.
And the life that once was man's
Is no longer here today.

And though there is a purpose
For everything that's done.
I sometimes question reasons
And the why of things to come.

Cheerleaders

The T.H.S. cheerleaders, advised by Kathleen Kelso, have again done a terrific job of keeping up the spirit and morale of the student body. They have contributed much of their time and energy to the pep rallies, football, and basketball games. The cheerleader's main job is to let the team know that the student body is behind them all the way, and they do just that. For this they deserve a great big THANK YOU from all of us.

Dear Reader:

The theme for Anath 1978 is "We're Still the One." which is not only illustrated on the cover, but through the introduction and the entire book. The Anath Staff has tried to captivate the pulsation of the school and its activities . . . homecoming . . . Lenawee County Youth Convention . . . seniors . . . faculty and staff . . . underclassmen . . . student life . . . sports . . . graduation . . . clubs . . . dances . . . awards night . . . and the talent show. Experimenting with several new techniques and ideas, we have hoped to improve the excitement of this year's Anath.

Special gratitude is extended to the following people for varying degrees of assistance with this publication:

the entire Anath Staff for their unending hours of hard work and dedication,

Mrs. Stevens, Anath advisor, for her guidance,

Doug Bynam, representative from Hunter Publishing, for all his help and advise,

Hunter Publishing for their excellent service,

Carl Habrick for taking the color pictures which appear in the Student Life section of this book,

Mary Moll for designing the cover with the help of Mrs. Fox, the Advertisers for their dedication and support which is greatly appreciated,

Mr. Cunningham for taking the pictures which appear in the Sports Records section, the Faculty and Staff for their cooperation, and then a very special THANK YOU is extended to you readers for purchasing this year's Anath, Anath 1978.

Sincerely yours,
Sue Long
Editor-in-Chief

P.S. The word "Anath" means farewell in Indian!
